Gaultois Shed Party

In the company of local Gaultonians, step into a shed and discover a bit of local history through songs & stories.

Guitars, button accordions, new and old songs, and a bite to eat. It's all part of the Newfoundland tradition of a "kitchen party" - in a shed. Join us, won't you?

DESCRIPTION

- Learn how the button accordion has become a mainstay in Newfoundland through stories and songs.
- Try your hand at using an authentic Newfoundland musical instrument - the Ugly stick.
- Enjoy songs and stories from Newfoundland, and if you want to join in on a refrain, that's fine too!
- Sample some local Gaultois food.

The authentic culture of Newfoundland comes alive through the stories, songs, and music of the south coast. Here, where whaling, fishing, and aquaculture have evolved in a community fiercely proud of its community traditions, you'll step into a bubble of friendship and music the likes of which you've never experienced.

Scram Box Picnics

DESCRIPTION

In your Scram Box

- Picnic Lunch, prepared by The Gaultois Inn. Local recipes, desserts, and home-baked bread, with your choice of fillings.
- Local pickles and relishes and beverage of choice.
- A couple of books and other reading materials about the area. Read up, share a story or two and learn about local history.
- A Newfoundland tartan blanket to spread out and enjoy your lunch.

Take a Scram box and head for one of several unique locations in Gaultois. You can go just about anywhere - the Lookout, the wharf, hike to Matchem's, the trail to Piccaire, The Bottom, or Whale Island. Lunch provided in a Scram Box a century ago included a loaf of home-baked bread, molasses and fish. (Your lunch will be different.)
